

PROGRAMME

AESI is launching a Forum of European University Students with the Patronage of the President of the European Parliament which will be held in Rome the 24th and 25th of June, 2008. The main topics of the Forum will be focused on the analysis of the new Treaty of Lisbon and the future of the European Union.

The general title of the Forum will be:
"European Union Promoting Globalisation of Peace and Solidarity".

The programme will be organized in sessions focusing on the following main topics: human rights, integration and solidarity, peace and security, economic and energetic cooperation, etc.

The Forum will represent a final process of analysis prepared during the academic year 2008 by the university students through seminars, workshops and conferences at local levels in their Countries.

AESI is concentrating its academic year seminars of studies 2008 to this preliminary programme of preparation of the European Forum. The participants will come from different European Union Universities (delegations composed of 4 university students for each Member State). AESI has identified one coordinator for each delegation in collaboration with EUCA (European Association of University Colleges) and ARSS (Roman Association for Studies and Solidarity).

They will stay for a couple of days in order to discuss the final document that will be submitted to the Presidency of the European Parliament in Rome. The Forum is sponsored by the "Associazione Nazionale fra le Banche Popolari".
